

Operating MCCS Governance Model

■ Core Work, ■ Roles, and ■ Activities

Commissioners and Staff have the same set of “work” but their responsibilities for providing leadership, making decisions, and being accountable to the public changes according to their role. The broader the end of the pyramid, the greater the responsibility is for the group in that role. When the work is not the “core” (i.e., narrow end), there is a responsibility for the group to provide support to the leadership.

For more information, see the minutes of MCCS meeting, 11/99 and Schadd handout on Governance model adopted at that meeting.